

CREATIVE SPIRIT: Chloe Neilsen with Madison and Jai Schulz have fun working with loom bands at Spotlight Morayfield.

PHOTO: VICKI WOOD

Rainbow luck looms at school

RAINBOW Loom bands are back in a big way and Spotlight Morayfield is offering locals a chance to win $10,000 towards their art and craft room at their school.

"This is a great opportunity for your school to transform its art and craft room into something amazing. The winners will be able to choose what they want to do with their space to make it truly inspirational," Spotlight's store manager, Julie Jarmyn, said.

"We know how much Australians loved and embraced Rainbow Looms."

Children and even adults are being encouraged to produce a masterly loom band creation that could be anything from an Australian flag to a cute shoulder bag.

For locals to compete, all they need to do is go to Spotlight's Facebook page and redeem their free loom bands in store.

To win the competition, Spotlight Morayfield is looking for originality and something that is colourful. Spotlight Morayfield has already had plenty of Rainbow Loom vouchers redeemed and is looking forward to what locals can create.

Entries opened May 11 and go until June 30.