Halloween treat at Spotlight

By INDIA JERMYN

HALLOWEEN will take over Spotlight this weekend, as staff prepare for the big night with a host of activities for families in-store.

Spotlight crafts manager Franzi Weiss said they were preparing for a busy Saturday.

"Usually we'd have about 400 customers on a Saturday, but with Halloween it could be 500 throughout the day," she said.

"We're going to have cake decorating, kids games, a dress-up competition, balloon decorating, trick or treat and heaps of Halloween specials."

Ms Weiss said there would be a host of sweet treats for kids throughout the day, with cake decorators welcome to take home their creations. There will also be an eyeball guessing competition, with the winner claiming a costume worth $70.

There will be a dress-up competition at noon, with children invited to come as their favourite superhero for the chance to win a Star Wars poster.

Events start at 9am on Saturday October 31, with the competitions wrapping up about 4pm.
