THE Good Guys Shepparton has all of your last minute gift ideas covered this Christmas with a huge range of big brand homewares, electrical appliances, electronics, whitegoods and much more. There's something to suit every gift idea at every price point.

The Good Guys Shepparton Store Manager, Rodney Arthur said, "In store you'll find everything from clock radios, iPod docks, toasters and kettles right through to 64" plasma flat screens and much more. And if you're having trouble choosing the perfect gift for those hard to buy for members of the family, we have gift vouchers available at different price points also."

The Good Guys Shepparton also supports and gives back to the local community through their affiliation with Jamie's Ministry of Food and the Local Giving Program with United Way Goulburn Valley.

Mr Arthur said, "Particularly at this time of the year and throughout the Christmas period there are many families and individuals who experience hardship and it's great to know that from every purchase made, The Good Guys donate a portion of the total directly into the Local Giving Program which goes on to support local charities via the United Way Goulburn Valley Grants Program. It's a fantastic program which we are proud to be a part of."

This Christmas, get into The Good Guys Shepparton to take care of all of your last minute gift giving and at the same time, you will be supporting the local community.
